

Publication: Irish Times

Date: Thursday, February 9, 2006

Page: 18

Extract: 1 of 1

Circulation: 117,543

Author:

Headline: Irish Broadband appoints chief

Irish Broadband appoints chief

Wireless broadband provider Irish Broadband named Neil Parkinson, a former chief executive of Esat Group, as chief executive to help the company achieve its target of 75,000 customers before the end of this year.

Mr Parkinson has been working for Irish Broadband, which currently has 20,000 customers, on a consultancy basis for a number of months.