

Publication: Irish Daily Mail
Date: Wednesday, January 10, 2007
Page: 50
Extract: 1 of 1
Circulation: 0
Author:
Headline: Irish broadband wired

Irish broadband wired

IRISH Broadband has moved into the fixed-line market with a range of products it hopes will significantly increase broadband uptake. The service will be available to residential and business customers and enables the company to offer broadband to those outside its wireless network. Prices will range from €21.95 for a basic package to €169.95 for its premium service.